FRIDAY ————— APRIL 4, 1947

During the present leftward trend there is no occasion to wonder at the ideas advanced toward a socialized program for American medicine. Since the passing of the day of the old-time family doctor, some adjustments are due to meet the health needs of the new age. But the American people should be on guard against schemes, no matter how well intentioned, that would subject medicine to the deadening anesthesia of a dictatorial government bureau.

The supply of paper, such as this newspaper is printed on, is at the lowest point that it has ever been since the war started. Unless supplies can be increased and consumption on the part of some of the larger users held down, it is going to be necessary for many publications to reduce the size of their papers.

When we hear a book announced as a best seller, we are surprised when we read it if it doesn't contain a lot of profanity and conversation not normally indulged in by polite society and honest circles.

(Are we so heedless of the training of our youth that we pay more for books to train them than we do for their education? R. R. conductors make more than teachers.)—Christian Herald.

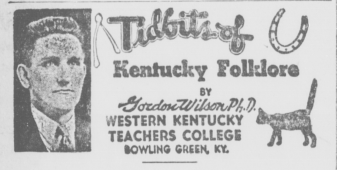

The reason so many marriages go on the rocks, a local cynic says, is that too many people think that married life will be easier than single life.

The greatest human satisfaction comes to the son-in-law, who, after having been condemned by the wife's family as a no-account, turns the tables by really amounting to something.

A discerning editor asks the question: Why is it that young men are prone to neglect the kind of a girl they want their sister to be?

It has become clear that the only way to get along smoothly with Russia is to give her everything she wants. And even Uncle Sam isn't able to do that.

The individual who paddles his own canoe, and his own kids, is the backbone of American life.

Kentucky Folklore

By Howard W. P. D. WESTERN KENTUCKY TEACHERS COLLEGE BOWLING GREEN, KY.

HISTORY AND PARABLE
In all these more than eleven years that I have been writing this column, I am sure that the regular readers of it—if there are any—will have wondered how much of what I have said about Fidelity is true, how much is not typical and used to carry my point. I will admit that I love to clinch a moral, but I am a natural lover of historical facts. I have always hated sham, as a true son of Fidelity. The many pictures of Kentucky shown in the past are anyone that is faithful of the genuine kind that I like best. People that my readers know and know, such as they are, have not been weakened nearly because I have tried to tell the truth, not some imagined truth that people might regard as better than anything that ever happened.

It was no long a custom of writers to picture the things they loved in a too-fanciful way, and who do otherwise are usually regarded as well-blended throwers of sensationalism who never tell you what you want to see. The whole South has suffered more from the sentimental friends of its enemies. When actual reality tried to present things as they exist in the South, all the sentimental, Rebels, political and sentimental, raise a cry of "unfair and untrue." Magnolias and cotton fields, happy dandies and the Big House, heroes of Shiloh and Ball Run, pretty Southern ladies and gallant gentlemen—how dare they are to hosts of people who never tried to see the real condition of people outside a few favored families!

I have just come from a visit to the area around Fidelity. I tried to bring my judgment to bear on the places I once knew. How easy it would be to declare that all the places that God made are lovely ranks highest! But "years that bring the philosophic mind" have taught me to see things clearly and to dare to express what I see. Fidelity was and is off the beaten path, never was and never will be rich; it has few leftovers of more-favored times. The man of the pioneer days until the Civil War was too short for any grand ideas to be held on in the place. The people that had settled there. There never was too much good soil on that land. The people that were there is too much to do to last long without the help of the people that have moved away to the cities. The population of the section is probably smaller than it was in the pioneer age and will undoubtedly still further decrease as farm machinery takes it possible for the people to operate the farms. The roads are much better, but that said one of the best parts of it was the old over.

Much has been said about defective cars and trucks. All of it true. But the most frequent cause of accidents is bad driving and the Sub-Committee suggests remedies that, while in force in some states, are revolutionary in Kentucky.

Good eyesight should be imperative for everybody getting a driver's license. There are no statistics on accidents caused by subnormal vision, but the rate must be high. Vision acuity either without glasses or correction with glasses, should be at least 20-40 in one eye, and 20-100 in the other eye, and form field of not less than 45 degrees in all meridians from the point of fixation. Also ability to distinguish red, green and yellow.

Next in importance is adequate hearing. People too deaf to hear a horn blow alongside them are driving cars all over Kentucky and endangering other people's lives and their own every day.

The model set of laws recommended would deny licenses to persons addicted to alcohol or narcotics. And to persons minus a foot, leg and arm, or any other structure defect or limitation, as well as mental, nervous, organic or functional disease.

Every applicant for a driver's license would have to demonstrate his or her ability to drive with reasonable safety.

There is a catch, however, in the recommendations. They stress the foregoing rules only for commercial drivers. If you don't go as far as laws already in the status of other states, is not excessive. A motor vehicle can be drawn and passed by the next General Assembly. The best material for a driver's license is other states can be embodied in a Kentucky statute. Why not all the states one better by enacting the best of the traffic regulations adopted thus far by any Commonwealth? Kentucky can be the first in several things that we want her to be.

American Communists opened a smear campaign against J. Edgar Hoover and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. That scheme was dropped because there is no man in public life, and no branch of the government, that ranks higher than Mr. Hoover and his Bureau. He will locate the American Communists employed in the Federal Government, and they will be fired.

The investigation is absolutely thorough. And this is no Witch Hunt.

Human Smash-Up Increase

Womans, particularly those who do "smash-up" sooner than men.

This is the opinion of physicians, psychologists and professors who treat the human smash-up as a choice attendant to overindulgence in alcohol. It is also the opinion of the United States and the United States and the United States.

According to a spokesman for Alcoholics Anonymous, women who do "smash-up" at the rate of the average man last until he is 40.

As Free Air Isn't It? Among nature's gifts to man is the highly desirable fact that we can breathe free air. Abundant and free in the earth in those areas where oil is found, natural gas is as freely available to mankind as is the air men breathe and the sunshine that lights their way.

Compared with coal and oil, natural gas as a fuel is cheap, clean, and it is a clean fuel.

Why don't more of us use it? Because there isn't enough of it. The United States is carrying it from the oil and gas fields to our factories and homes.

Yet, held in the ground in the oil and gas fields, the cubic feet of natural gas that the pipelines ought to be carrying.

And why aren't we carrying it? Because, with policies and methods that Associate Justice Jackson of the United States Supreme Court has called "delirious," "capricious," and "fantastic."

It was claimed that our failure to join the League of Nations and to be international in interest after World War I was the direct cause of World War II. But now, with our government completely represented in all the international organizations, it is seemingly thought by this same internationalism that another war is not likely to be a case of "heads we win, tails you lose" in our tossing of the coin.

If Communists are reasoning individuals they must want what they consider to be the best for their ideologies. What they want, very obviously, is freedom to propagate their views, unimpeded by the laws of the land. Without such a scope, therefore, that such unhindered scope must be given them completely free from a fallacy to assume that the best way to prevent their development is to give them complete freedom when that is the very thing they desire. Whether outlawing of any kind of propaganda by the government is quite another matter. That a representative government should be free to do so is quite another matter.

WASHINGTON SNAPSHOT

CUTTING GOVERNMENT PAYROLLS

By J. E. Jones

Washington, D. C., March-April—About 2,800 employees of the U. S. Labor Department are no longer employed in the government service and Congress has made a $4 million budget slash against the U. S. Labor Department workers are making quite a fuss about the action of Congress and they turned out the other day to advise Capitol Hill to quit turning them out of their jobs. The performance was a sort of imitation of a strike against the Government. Well, if Congress doesn't do a lot of things to cut down government expenses in a practical way the taxpayers will have to pay, and pay, and pay. It has been written in a publication that one of the problems of the times to be solved is "how to get rid of the dole and lack of work."

It's No Witch Hunt

Former Ambassador to Russia, William C. Bullitt, told a Committee of Congress that the United States is a fifth-column "far superior to any fifth column in the world."

As the record stands the Soviet Government has been conspicuous for filling the records with abusive criticism. President Truman's action in taking the offensive is supported by Congress, regardless of political parties. The relations of the United States and Russia must be regarded as critical.

THE AMERICAN WAY

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Peale is minister of the First Presbyterian Church on Fifth Avenue, New York City.

Take an optimistic attitude toward things. That is the only way to make things come out right. Pessimistic thinking produces pessimistic results. Optimistic thinking leads to optimistic results.

One of the wisest men of our English speaking world was Dr. Samuel Johnson. He said, "It is worth a thousand pounds a year to any man to cultivate the habit of looking on the bright side of things." Translated into our currency, that means it is worth five thousand dollars a year to you to develop an optimistic thought by outside factors.

We are so accustomed to thinking negatively in this country that there is little wonder we get on negative results. It is very important what and how you think. The wisest man of ancient Rome was Marcus Aurelius. He left a volume of wise sayings which bears the title, "The Meditations of Marcus Aurelius." It contains wise ideas that can be used in any generation. One of them is this: "What is life? It is what the gods make of it." That is to say, the world you live in is not determined by what goes on in your brain. It is formed by what the very best of men have thought.

Some people say the wisest man who ever lived in the United States was Ralph Waldo Emerson, the Sage of Concord. He said, "A man is what he thinks about all day long."

Obviously a person thinks about many things in the course of a day, but the things that are thought are one basic or primary thought which governs and colors all his other thoughts. If this basic thought is negative, all of his thoughts will be tinged negatively. If, on the other hand, it is positive, everything will be bright and hopeful and optimistic. As a result, he will get on believing so thoroughly himself, in the world in which he lives, in his country and in his God that nothing can get him back. He will just go forward despite all difficulties because he has had no vision of his mind is creating for him.

The great men who have done things in this world have been men of this type. Thomas A. Edison, whose one hundred anniversary was celebrated this year, was such a man. Recently it was my great privilege to witness the opening of his old, battered, rolled-top desk which had been closed since the night he died, October 18, 1881. Only a few of us were in the famous studio at West Orange when this historic ceremony occurred. Of course, the newsmen and the radio men and the radio people were there. Other than that there were only members of his family, his wife, his daughter, and his son.

It was at this desk, until he died, that he had no vision of his mind is creating for him.

He had no vision of his mind is creating for him.

He had no vision of his mind is creating for him.

He had no vision of his mind is creating for him.

He had no vision of his mind is creating for him.

Record in New Type Planes Is Expected

Engineers Say Operating Cost Will Be Lowered.

DETROIT—More new types of aircraft will be introduced in 1947 than in any previous year in American air transportation history, it was reported at closing sessions of the annual meeting of the Society of Automotive Engineers.

R. C. Loomis of Trans World Airline said the new planes will include the Lockheed Constellation model 649, designed for commercial use, a new Douglas DC-4, the Boeing Stratocruiser, the Martin model 302 and 303, the Convair 240 and at least two smaller craft.

The spokesman said the use of fuel injection systems will increase speed and result in lower operating costs this year. He predicted, however, that no gas turbine powered aircraft will be in commercial service in 1947.

Another L.A.E. speaker, Capt. W. C. Latrobe of the navy department's bureau of ships, said navy ships in the future may be operated on fuels from new sources. Tests have demonstrated the possibility of running vessels on gasoline and diesel fuels made from coal, natural gas and oil shale, he said.

W. F. Jochem of the U. S. naval engineering experiment station, Annapolis, Md., called for a new and higher order of development engineering in the diesel engine field.

Tests have demonstrated the possibility of running vessels on gasoline and diesel fuels made from coal, natural gas and oil shale, he said.

Work Begins On U. K. Fieldhouse.

When local residents visit the campus of Kentucky's state university at Lexington in 1949 they should find plenty of room to meet in convention or to view athletic teams in action if the present schedule for construction of the University of Kentucky's new Memorial Auditorium-Fieldhouse is followed. The huge structure will seat 12,000 persons and will have, as one of its unusual features, adjustable temporary walls allowing the creation of auditoriums of various sizes. Contracts for preliminary construction have been awarded and ground is expected to be broken in April.

Garden 'Greens' Can Be Continuous

Plenty of leafy vegetables, raw and cooked, are necessary in the diet of both children and grownups in order to promote vigor and well-being. In a home garden they can be continuous for many months if various kinds are grown.

Leaf lettuce is one of the first green things to appear. The young leaves can be picked for the table when only a couple of inches in length while the smaller inner leaves are left to grow. The same is true of spinach; the tender inner leaves are as good raw as cooked when chopped and served with oil and vinegar dressing. Or, treat them the same as "wilted lettuce" by pouring over them a mixture of hot bacon fat, vinegar, and bits of cooked bacon. To vary the flavor of these greens, add a small amount of popovers. The fried curly foliage of this upland cress is as easy to grow as lettuce.

For long season greens Swiss chard is a winner. No leafy vegetable stands hot weather better. The outer leaves should be kept picked, the inner ones left to continue growing, and the result will be tender, brittle stalks and leaves for a long time.

Of the numerous root tops used as greens, beet, mustard, and turnip are increasingly popular. Like all vegetables they are best when young. Mustard and turnip particularly should be used for greens only in the early stages. The tops of mustard and turnip combined are appetizing—a favorite of grandmother's day.

By sowing seed of kale in spring or summer in the North and August to October in the South, fresh greens can be picked from the garden even after the coming of frost and light snow. In fact, some frost improves the texture and flavor of kale, making it a real treat for late autumn and winter meals. Dwarf Curled Kale is one of the best varieties for home gardens.

Uncle Sam Says

Whenever I hear one of my neighbors say he has bought United States Savings Bonds, I feel like nudging him and saying, "Neighbor, you haven't really bought anything. You may sound strange at first, but it is simple. Ordinarily when you buy something you have to spend your money. What you have actually done in acquiring savings bonds is to exchange money for money. You have merely converted your money into a different form, a form in which it will start growing in amount. In savings bonds your money earns $4 for every $10 invested in ten years."

Jefferson County's HOME NEWSPAPER

Valley Station

News By Mrs. F. B. Smith

R. Owen Smith, Sr. and mother called at the Owen Funeral Home Sunday afternoon to pay tribute to an old acquaintance, Mrs. Jacob William Keeble, 81, who was called in death Saturday, March 29 at 9:25 a.m. at his home, 2205 Hale Ave., by Mrs. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital.

He was well known in the Greenwood and Cane Run Road section of Valley Station where his wife, Mrs. Norma Scott Keeble, lived before her marriage.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Russell Keeble; 3 brothers, Lawrence, Frank and Elmer Keeble, all of Jeffersonville. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon from the chapel, Interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.

Mr. Keeble possessed a good personality and congenial spirit. We extend personal sympathy to the bereaved.

After a call at the Funeral Home, we drove on to 32nd and Virginia and visited a while with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Craig and daughter. We were glad to see Mrs. Craig looking so well and not improved. They are arranging for a bedroom for Mrs. Craig on the first floor and moving the new kitchen over behind the dining room with additional conveniences in general. Mrs. Craig isn't able to walk alone yet but we hope she will keep improving. She was one of the first acquaintances more than fifty years ago when we both lived near each other near Cane Run Road.

Attendance at Bechtold the past Sunday was 274. A special offering for missions totaled $80.60. Mrs. Foss was pleased to have nineteen members present in her adult women's class the Helping Hand.

Mrs. Rosenberg sponsored a team for the young men's basketball tournament Monday evening at the annex. Mr. Bobby Rooney is superintendent over this department of Sunday School work.

Mrs. William J. Clark, who is president of the Long Run W.B.U.M. of Mt. Vernon, Fairfield, Ky., to attend the State Convention held there this week though Friday at the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. A. J. Miller and Mrs. R. L. Madis who are delegates left Tuesday to attend the convention.

Mrs. Clarence Tabor is now at home for the doing well after recent operation at St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital. We hope for her speedy recovery.

While Mrs. George Rooney, Sr., who hasn't recovered from the injury to her foot which occurred some time ago in an auto accident, she is managing to take care of a large number of young chicks, that now average around a pound each and hasn't lost but one so far.

William C. Kennedy of the navy, U.S.S. Missouri is here on business visiting close relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rarden of Johnston Road have their guest an older brother of Mrs. Rarden's, Mr. Raymond Moys of New York.

Miss Joy A. Garey spent the week-end as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Lewis of Louisville. Beverly M. Smith and mother called on the writer, her great grandmother, one evening recently.

Mrs. May Birkhead of Lexington Road died and her relatives from a distance came to the funeral Monday at 1 p.m. She was formerly known in the Valley community.

As the relatives had been formerly residents of the Valley community, they were entertained with dinner at the home of Mrs. W. C. Kennedy and son, who had been as near neighbors many years ago. They were Mrs. Lillie Burnett Thomas of Pittsburg, Pa. and her sister, Sarah from West Virginia, Miss Pearl Layne and sister, Miss Myrtle Bridwell of Louisville who were hosts to Lillie and Sarah and who brought them out to the Kennedy home. Mrs. Lena Penney was also a guest at dinner Sunday.

Mr. Harry Roggenkamp who has family with his father-in-law, Mr. A. J. Miller, for a number of years made proper room for active farming in teaching his youngest son, Al, who chose that vocation and has reserved a small portion of the land for that purpose. Mr. Henry Raggard, formerly of Murray's Lane has rented the farm proper and taken over the brick home for an apartment.

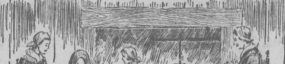

We have heard that Mr. Lanson Beahl has improved some.

CHARLES VETTINER, Editor.

Seeing these Jefferson County friends and acquaintances give you quite a bang. These kids are going to win individual medals for themselves, and plaques for their schools. That from Old Smoke Ringer, you cannot spend more pleasant evenings than you enjoy in a program sponsored by the Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board. Everybody says they are tops. Smoke agrees.

Sure is a lot going on in your County Recreation Program. The communities name their recreational meals, the Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board serves the choice morsels.

Sofball clinics are starting on Saturday morning sessions at Fairdale, Friday afternoon at Jeffersontown and Valley and another on Saturday morning at Anchorage. There are also baseball clinics going on.

Future America can have all the fun he or she wants by dropping in at the nearest recreational part in his or her neighborhood and having wholesome recreation during leisure hours.

Calling All Softballers! There is going to be a big softball meet in the office of good old "Oakley Brown" on April 7. If you want to play softball give Oak a buzz.

And now for the "pipe of the week award," going to that individual who has done something for somebody else in Jefferson County this week. Pipe number 352 goes to Arthur Shacklette for services rendered the kids at Auburndale.

This is the way things kick in Jefferson County with everybody having fun because the Jefferson County Recreation Program is in action.

Pipe's out. Light her up again next week.

Care Needed to Keep Piano in Good Condition

According to the National Piano Manufacturers association, many so-called defects that develop in pianos are due to neglect. In a recently published booklet, the association says how a piano should be cared for.

First, make sure your piano is properly tuned. A piano tuner should be called in for a check-up every six months. Keep mops from getting into the felt by placing a chamber bag over the mops.

Second, keep the piano clean. Wipe the felt every two or three times with a moist-resistant polish. Wipe the keys with a damp cloth.

Newburg News

By Mrs. J. H. Shively

A beautiful spring day, March may go out like a lamb, but who can tell, she played so many breaks on us last week, which almost made us feel like winter begins in March.

Sorry we did not get to attend the quilting last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Wilfred Kaler. We started but the blinding snowstorm frightened us and we turned blizzard.

The Fish Fry of two weeks ago given by the School Club was quite a success. Fish unusually good, and returns very pleasing.

Mrs. L. P. Jones sends the birth announcement of Sara Leslie Price, pretty little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. D. Price of Macon, Ga., also Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Pearson of Crawfordville, Ind., send a very attractive announcement of their twins born March 20, names Vivian Ann and Vincent Oval. Mrs. Pearson was before her marriage Miss Leslie Frey. Congratulations to these happy parents.

Mrs. Frank Arnold and daughter, Miss Wanda Lee, were Sunday afternoon callers of Mrs. Catharine Hart.

Will be so glad when the Kaler family can come back to Sunday School and church. Hope Mary will soon be here.

Mrs. Shively made a brief call on Mrs. Jimmy Jordan last Monday. Her home is very attractive.

The attendance is increasing a little at Newburg Sunday School. Mr. Joe Haering is selling sod from his front pasture.

A family by the name of Hadley have bought the Vittavito property and the children are coming to Sunday School.

Mr. and Mrs. Lilly came to church today and brought with them a guest from the South, a much-loved niece of Mr. and Mrs. Lilly, Mrs. Murrell. We are all fond of her, she has a wonderful personality and we hope to see much of her while she is here.

Mrs. Roy Hart braved the snow blizzards and went to Louisville to shop.

Thanks to the young people who came out for the choir practice Wednesday night. Through some misunderstanding the leader, George Kenneth Martin, did not come.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Stivers attended the banquet given in honor of Dr. Bates Saturday night. Mr. R. J. Cook and Mr. Frank Wolf attended a banquet at the Seelbach last Sunday for the Standard employees.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Shively attended a Pre-Easter Re-union at Flora Heights Christian Church Sunday night, March 30.
